

Wayland Lindquist

The funeral for Wayland Lindquist, 48, Groton and former Aberdeen resident were held at 2 p.m., Tuesday, Jan. 26, at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Groton with the Rev. F. Philip Strain officiating.

Burial was in the Britton Cemetery. The Paetznick-Garness Funeral Chapel was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Lindquist died Friday, Jan. 22, at the Colonial Manor in Groton.

Casketbearers were Richard Anderson, Dale Bistodeau, Dean Hanson, Donald Knecht, William James and Elden Tunheim. Mrs. John Gibbs was the organist and the congregation sang "Praise To The Lord"; "Rock of Ages"; and "My God How Wonderful Thou Art".

Wayland Lindquist was born on September 20, 1933, at Britton. He attended rural school and graduated from Claremont High School in 1953. He worked as a porter and bellhop in Sioux Falls and Huron and later at the Ward Hotel in Aberdeen until 1971. He married Nancy Tuve in November, 1960, at Summit. He had resided in Groton since 1975.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Inez Olson, Groton; one foster son, Bradley Lindquist, Aberdeen; one stepbrother, Darl Olson, Claremont; and two stepsisters, Mrs. John (Ilene) Knecht, Houghton; and Mrs. Doug (Bonnie) Cole, Langford.

He was preceded in death by his father and his stepfather.